

CAMBRIDGE FENCING CENTER

International Junior Fencing Clinics

SESSION 1:
AUGUST 2-6, 2010
(MONDAY-FRIDAY)

SESSION 2:
AUGUST 9-13, 2010
(MONDAY-FRIDAY)

Application deadline: June 1, 2010.

HOST HOTEL

www.cambridgefencingcenter.com

CAMBRIDGE FENCING CENTER

International Junior Fencing Clinics

SESSION 1:
AUGUST 2-6, 2010
(MONDAY-FRIDAY)

SESSION 2:
AUGUST 9-13, 2010
(MONDAY-FRIDAY)

Application deadline: June 1, 2010.

HOST HOTEL

www.cambridgefencingcenter.com

These fencing clinics, for fencers between the ages of 14 and 17, and offer a fantastic opportunity to learn about competitive fencing from world-class coaches while immersed in the most creative academic environment in the world – Cambridge, Massachusetts, home of MIT, Harvard University and many more institutions.

The clinics will have national and international character, as we expect fencers from Canada, South Korea, England and Poland to attend.

Coaching staff includes:
ED KORFANTY is USA National Olympic Coach for Women’ Sabre coached two-time Olympic gold medalist and World Champion, Mariel Zagunis.

JAREK KONIUSZ, the head coach of MIT Women’s and Men’s varsity fencing teams, and founder of the Cambridge Fencing Center, is one of Ed’s former students and a bronze and silver medalist of the World Championships.

YOUNG Ho KIM, Olympic foil gold medalist from South Korea; Young Ho is currently leading successful junior programs in Seoul.

PETER BRAND is the Varsity head coach of Harvard University and the member of the coaching staff at the Cambridge Fencing Center.

Cost:

- OVERNIGHT PARTICIPANTS at the Hyatt (room plus 3 meals)
- Session I (Monday-Friday)-$975.00
- Weekend (Saturday-Sunday)-$95.00 per day
- Session I (Monday-Friday)-$975.00
- COMMUTERS per session -$500.00
- CAMBRIDGE FENCING CENTER MEMBERS-$450.00

Spots are limited. Please apply as soon as possible to reserve your place.

For more information, please contact:
Lee Shin Program, Director,
Email: lee-shin@cambridgefencingcenter.com
Telephone: 617.694.9149 or go to www.cambridgefencingcenter.com.

These fencing clinics, for fencers between the ages of 14 and 17, and offer a fantastic opportunity to learn about competitive fencing from world-class coaches while immersed in the most creative academic environment in the world – Cambridge, Massachusetts, home of MIT, Harvard University and many more institutions.

The clinics will have national and international character, as we expect fencers from Canada, South Korea, England and Poland to attend.

Coaching staff includes:
ED KORFANTY is USA National Olympic Coach for Women’ Sabre coached two-time Olympic gold medalist and World Champion, Mariel Zagunis.

JAREK KONIUSZ, the head coach of MIT Women’s and Men’s varsity fencing teams, and founder of the Cambridge Fencing Center, is one of Ed’s former students and a bronze and silver medalist of the World Championships.

YOUNG Ho KIM, Olympic foil gold medalist from South Korea; Young Ho is currently leading successful junior programs in Seoul.

PETER BRAND is the Varsity head coach of Harvard University and the member of the coaching staff at the Cambridge Fencing Center.

Cost:

- OVERNIGHT PARTICIPANTS at the Hyatt (room plus 3 meals)
- Session I (Monday-Friday)-$975.00
- Weekend (Saturday-Sunday)-$95.00 per day
- Session I (Monday-Friday)-$975.00
- COMMUTERS per session -$500.00
- CAMBRIDGE FENCING CENTER MEMBERS-$450.00

Spots are limited. Please apply as soon as possible to reserve your place.

For more information, please contact:
Lee Shin Program, Director,
Email: lee-shin@cambridgefencingcenter.com
Telephone: 617.694.9149 or go to www.cambridgefencingcenter.com.